

XSEDE Code of Conduct

XSEDE has expectations regarding employees' behavior towards their colleagues, supervisors and overall organization. Although we promote freedom of expression and open communication practices, all employees are still obliged to conduct themselves in a professional manner. It is also important for XSEDE to provide a well-organized, respectful and collaborative environment.

As a virtual organization, formal policy exists for XSEDE staff as provided by their home institutions. XSEDE staff are expected to be cognizant of and comply with their institutional policies.

Failure to comply with a staff members institutional policy result in appropriate disciplinary action. This will be determined in conjunction with the staff member's home institution as appropriate. However, in such situations XSEDE does reserve the right to withdraw funding for the XSEDE staff member failing to comply with relevant policies.
